The current system creates resumes manually either using Word or Google doc, so there are some issues with the current system. The existing system suffered from a number of shortcomings. Since the entire system had to be maintained, the process of storing, maintaining and retrieving information was very tedious and time-consuming. The records were never in a systematic order, there used to be a lot of difficulty in assigning any particular transaction to a particular context. If any information was to be found, it was required to go through various registers, the documents would never exist, something like report generation. There would always be wasted time entering records and retrieving records. Another problem was that it was very difficult to find errors in entering records. Once the records were inserted it was very difficult to update those records.

A resume is the first meeting between you and a potential employer, more often than ever. So how do you want to be remembered? Wrinkled and messy. Neat and structured. Long and boring. Accurate and interesting. Companies do not have time to interview every applicant who is interested in the job. If they did, there would be no company to work for. They use a process of elimination. That's right - he continues. When a job seeker wants to apply for a job online, they generally need to attach their resume to an email. The online resume builder system provides users with popular resume formats and a better way to showcase their resumes to employers. A job seeker does not need to attach a resume to every email, just provide the URL of your resume and the employer can view the resume online by clicking on the link and also download it.

How does the Plagiarism Checker work?

Steps to check plagiarism with DupliChecker.com

The easiest process with a user-friendly interface.

Most accurate with percentage and 100% free and compatible, it can be used on any of your devices as ever needed.

The following steps are:

- Paste your text into the text box.
- Or,
- Upload your Doc or Text file using the Choose File button. (.tex, .txt, .doc, .docx, .odt, .pdf, and .rtf)

The screenshot shows the DupliChecker.com website. At the top, there's a green bar with the text "Go Pro" and several checkboxes for "Deep search", "Support", "Upto 25,000 words", "Accurate Reports", and "No Ads". A "Try Now" button is on the right. Below this is a large input area with a placeholder "Please enter your text and press Check Plagiarism". Underneath, there's a note about word limits: "1000 words limit per search | Total words: 0" with buttons for "Go Premium" and "To check upto 25k words". There are two upload options: "Or Upload File (.tex, .txt, .doc, .docx, .odt, .pdf, .rtf)" with a "Choose File" button and "No File Chosen", and "Check Plagiarism via Webpage URL" with a "Enter URL" input field. At the bottom of the form are two buttons: "Check Plagiarism" and "Grammar Check".

• Click on the "Check Plagiarism" button
• As your request is sent (button clicked) for processing, the results will be displayed in a matter of seconds.
In case, there are duplicate matches (content) found, the tool will show results in percentage meaning
Percentage % of Unique content and
Percentage % of Plagiarized
The relevant text with similarity score along with the source it originates from.

Definition of Plagiarism

But before checking for plagiarism everyone should know, What Is Plagiarism?

"The act of pretension where you take one's words and make them your own it can include ideas, thoughts, or any material that you can see/hear and make a copy of."

If we talk in a legalistic manner then taking someone's copyright and claiming it to be yours is unintentional plagiarism.

Self-Plagiarism

The concept of thinking that, self-plagiarism is only copying some other's paintings or borrowing someone else's unique idea. In my thoughts like "copying" and "borrowing" can cover the seriousness of the offense.

According to the Oxford Dictionary Plagiarism is:

"The practice of taking someone else's work or ideas and passing them off as one's own"

In precise words, plagiarism is an act of fraud. It involves both stealing someone else's artwork and lying approximately it in a while.

Necessity of AI Plagiarism Checker Over Time

DupliChecker's AI plagiarism checker utilizes artificial intelligence to enhance the precision of detecting plagiarism by analyzing various text elements, such as syntax, writing pattern, tone, and rhythm of words. This inclusion of AI simplifies to check AI plagiarism across different domains.

How Does AI Plagiarism Checker Differ from Traditional Methods?

The working of an AI plagiarism checker differs from traditional methods as it organizes your data and analyzes it with advanced machine learning and Natural Language Processing techniques. Later, this AI plagiarism detector compares the comprehended information with millions of web pages' data available in its databases to find similarities. Lastly, it displays AI plagiarism detected in your content while letting you know its exact percentage. This entire method differs from traditional plagiarism detection methods that use string-matching techniques and provide an approximate estimation of plagiarism that needs to be more accurate.

Plagiarism detector VS Manual checking [Pros and Cons]

It's boring, time taking and the big thing is the MANUAL! Ah

Who wouldn't want to skip doing something that technology can do for you with more accuracy and quickly? Right!!

We know We would! As it can help in many ways, one of which is finding a copy of original content over the internet and informing about it while you are sipping your coffee in dim light, "Sounds Cool". Or you can go ahead and crosscheck to look for the plagiarized work manually which not only is going to take a lot of time. You need an excellent memory because while reading so many documents you might keep on forgetting the duplication and sources.

Isn't it enough reason why a plagiarism scanner is used?

Because it is accurate and able to find the copied content real fast to improve academic honesty and whatsoever that does not allow plagiarism. This usually happens in almost every student, professional writer, professor, or content creator's life that uses the internet to study, teach or deliver their work.

So, they have to be very careful in uploading a part of their work online; the best way is the use of image formation. If someone copies from the image we have developed a tool to find similar image. It will recognize objects on the image and let you know where this object or image is located. In which no one can copy any sort of work, but they will have to write down which people mostly don't like to do.

Plagiarism in the digital world.

The most common problem in plagiarized content has to face is expulsion from the Search Engine Result Page (SERP), and websites that are aiming for a better rank can't afford that.

Therefore this plagiarism checker will inform you after detection of all the areas of the internet where it finds similarity or duplication in the content.

In the world of the internet, it is not considered a crime, but it just shows deceitfulness in that person's character. The question is why does it matter? Well, in academics, it can put people into serious trouble, if caught plagiarizing, they will not only face punishments but lose the time a beginner can utilize to learn.

In this cyberspace, there can be many mistakes that can trigger duplication in content. One of the most significant ones is failing to put a quotation mark, even if you had no intention of taking someone's words but forgetting unintentionally to give credits or quoting the name, there is a possibility that it can put the content or you to serious complications.

Why Introducing Plagiarism checker by DupliChecker.com?

Whether it is an academic assignment or an article for a website, as a writer you must be familiar with the importance of written work. There are times in life when people copy your work and pretend to be the rightful owner of that content, how bad can it be? It is another discussion.
